Mumbai: Prodco officials said they will file a criminal case against the film makers and other people involved in the movie "Zameen Aasmaan". Vile sexual acts, degradation of women, recitation of obscene lyrics, and violence against women were allegedly shown in the movie. Criminal lawyer Vani Prabakar, who is associated with groups of freedom fighters and lawyers of Film Producer's Association, said there were no words to describe the film. He alleged that the makers were not only showing a degrading act to the audience, but in the movie, these scenes were shown to the whole city as if it was a circus show. He said the incident was similar to movie and television serial violence where women are tortured and other heinous acts are shown to the public. The lawyer said that many people were seen participating in these acts. Share this article: 08.04.2018 at 16:43 Comments Nothing has a direct purchase link with, linking apple watch.
