Posts: 7 Topic: WTF Roms Anyone else keep getting Error 4608: "Can not load driver my gfx.dll, found at "c:\fakepath" and not anywhere on the system? I have tried the fix that was in the main TR HU, but it didn't change anything. Re: WTF Roms It is a known issue with the C:\fakepath\gfx.dll so it cannot load. If you run nvidia's utility (found in your setup disc), it can either manually update your registry, or it will ask you to add a path to it. I've never needed to manually fix the registry, but I'm sure there's a fix for it somewhere.
