It is based on the novel of the same name by Li Yu. It stars Andy Lau, Chingmy Yau, Alex Fong and Kenny Bee, as well as Louis Koo. The film follows the story of an innocent, perverted young man, brought up in a brothel house, who is kicked out by his grandmother, and consequently leaves Hong Kong for Shanghai. The film is both the directorial debut of Alan Mak, and that of actor Lau. The English title of the film is based on one of the main characters' sexual proclivities. Plot Popular Hong Kong entertainer Mr. Cheung likes his film stars to be "clean and pure". But when he comes across an attractive actress named Sasha whose face is covered with makeup, he is particularly taken by her and gives her his company. Mr. Cheung persuades Sasha to leave her seedy profession and go to work with him. As the relationship progresses, his family realizes what has been going on and takes steps to end it. Mr. Cheung wants to help Sasha find a better profession, but the police takes notice of his and Sasha's relationship and suspects that Mr. Cheung's company is a front for prostitution. But when
