

Slayer Slayer is a side scrolling beat 'em up, set in a grim fantasy world full of vampires, zombies, killers and monsters. A player must battle against waves of dangerous enemies, exploring the huge overworld map in search of powerful weapon abilities and the secrets hidden in the dungeons. By destroying the heads of the 40 different enemies, each with their own unique weapons, items and abilities, the player can increase his strength and use items such as potions and weapons to level up. The player must first defeat the bosses who stand in his way of achieving true power. In order to earn the strength to defeat the bosses the player must make use of the blood of the 40 different enemies he must eliminate. Each enemy has his own blood type and defeating them will provide the player with different blood types to mix. The potions of health, and those of damage, will also be necessary to fight and defeat the enemies. Key Features: Global Timed Tournament: Starting with a new player, four players go through an on-line fight to determine which player will be the first to join him in the real tournament. On the leaderboard the player will see how he is doing compared to other players in the world. The better he does the more money he will have to spend during the fight to obtain various equipment. During the single player mode, when the player reaches the level 50's, he will automatically enter the on-line tournament to see if he is going to win the money to spend for stronger weapon abilities, and special weapons such as the lightning sword, the war axe, the holy sword and others. Thought Castle: At the end of the single player mode, the player must face the "Thought Castle". The final boss of the game is a player, who will appear when the player enters the castle with an infinite amount of weapons, and power. The more weapons, and items, the player buys in this mode, the more will his performance compare to other players in the world. Every point of damage inflicted by a weapon or power, will change the color of the top five weapons on the screen. By buying a new weapon for a certain amount of points, the player will be able to change the color and style of this weapon in order to make him look more stylish. After purchasing the new weapon he will receive a message on the screen telling him that it is available for purchase, and in order to buy it

Game "Baseball Diamonds" Gameplay: Can you remember everything that happened at the World Series? Test your baseball knowledge with this cool baseball simulation game. Play in series and challenge your friends. In the Class A wilds, this pitcher is pitching the best game he has had all year. He doesn't care that he is down to his last strike. He just wants to keep his team in the game. Just like every game, he is up to bat. A single, a double, no fans in left field as he steps up to the plate. The score is 0-0. He takes the batter's eye and mounds up a pitch. The home team, the Cubs, are on first. He doesn't know it, but he is down to his last strike. The half-million dollar contract he signed was left in his glove. His family just left town. The relatives he invited are all in jail. The house where he grew up is gone. The manager that drafted him is long dead. The man who sold him for a seven figure contract is himself dead. It is July 7 and the season is over. The dream is over. The boat is sinking. This little ball is going to end his dream right now. He just can't believe it. A hitter walks up to the plate. The game is tied. The Cubs have a runner on third. The batter is up to bat. We all know what happens next. This is no time to be nervous. The batter looks at the catcher. They both make eye contact. It's a strike. The umpire calls the ball a strike. We all know what happens next. This is no time to be nervous. The batter looks at the catcher. They both make eye contact. It's a strike. The runner on third, of course, didn't get to first base. They always manage to get to first base. The whole point of this game is to see what happens next. The batter takes the ball. He looks to the catcher. They make eye contact. A strike is called. It's all over. They won the game. They are now World Series Champions. It's all over. They didn't go down easy. They won every game in the regular season. They beat the Dodgers. They beat the Cardinals

A: Paul Molitor began playing minor league baseball with the Kansas City Blues in a very unique way. Since the organization would not renew his contract with the team he put down on a $56.40 ticket that gave him two free tickets every time he played. He thus played for a grand total of 356 games in Kansas City before he got his big break with the Brewers. Q: For a pitcher, what is the record that Joe Tanana holds for most innings pitched in a game in college? A: Joe has pitched 1813 consecutive innings without allowing an earned run. This incredible streak lasted from June 23, 2001 to March 11, 2011 (before he lost his way). The record was finally broken in 2011 when Joe threw 5 innings at Coe Kerr College in Nebraska. The record for most innings pitched before a loss by a pitcher in any collegiate game is held by Florida second baseman Steve Lohofink, who tossed 1811.7 innings during his career at the University of Tampa (Tampa, Fl.) The record for most innings pitched in a college baseball game is set by Cotton Felder of Alabama who threw 1593.2 innings at the University of Alabama between 2007-2011. Q: Catching is becoming an extinct position in minor leagues, how many catchers remain active today in the farm system of Major League Baseball teams? A: 13 players currently play catcher for NPB and MLB teams. They are not necessarily still with their original teams but at least they are still playing. Notable players include MLB players Jason Varitek and Andy LaRoche and two Japanese free agents, Taka Ishii and Ryoma Akawa. Q: What is the longest winning streak by the Detroit Tigers? A: Joe Mayne holds the record for most consecutive wins at one time with a streak of 25 straight victories from July 1, 1976 until he lost his first game to Pittsburgh on Sept. 5, 1976. Joe went onto break the record yet again on Aug. 20, 1977 when he went 47-7. The Tigers' 1988 team remained the most consistent on average year to year winning streak. They went 53-44 including a 14-4 record in June 1988. Detroit narrowly missed the top spot when they won only 50 games while averaging a .566 winning percentage. This team was led by stars Alan Trammell, Lou Whitaker, Mark Fidrych, Mario Mendoza and Lance
