Here are nine things fans should know about the FIFA team that has the year's edition of the game on its hands.

Mikel Arteta - The right back is eager for the challenge of defending against Lionel Messi. "I know where all the players are going to be. I've been playing against Messi for most of my career, not just the Barcelona version, and I've seen him do some amazing things," Arteta said.

Sergio Ramos - Created one of his best moments on the pitch this season when he scored from outside of the box in the 3-2 win over Liverpool, ending a string of only one goal in his last eight games. "It's always great to score, especially away from home," Ramos said. "It was a beautiful goal and I'm happy I was able to contribute."

Pablo Zabaleta - The left-back refused to be put in the role of talking up his potential and reaching the World Cup final, but admitted to the media that the prospect of reaching the most prestigious tournament in football was "nice."

Gareth Bale - The winger has already been compared to Lionel Messi, Cristiano Ronaldo, Zlatan Ibrahimovic and David Beckham, and he's eager to show he can be the best. "I think everyone knows I want to be the best player in the world and I've been working very hard to try and achieve that," he said.

Dani Alves - The right-back will have to focus on at least two things: protecting his one-time teammate Messi and winning a place on the Brazil team for the World Cup. "I hope we can win against Argentina, but we'll try to get the World Cup," he said.

Matteo Guendouzi - Now that the manager has identified the young midfielder as the heir apparent to John Stones, he has a responsibility to live up to that status. Guendouzi said that he has spoken to Stones about his confidence and how he can make life easier for the team. "I think I have to go step by step to keep improving," he said.

Alexis Sanchez - The attacker was surprised by the team selection, and is eager to prove that he can be the first choice forward. "I'm happy to be back with the team. Playing regularly is good for me because I was out of the side for too long. But I still have to get used to playing with the team. There are a
