Other wise, I would be ashamed of it. Do you not know that the young men were raised in the temple of the "sons of God", and that it was here that they met their God. This would include the ones who would naturally be called men, men being those who have the qualities of young men, and young men being those who have the qualities of men. I say that God is calling young men (young in the order of heaven) to the temple of men (the temple of God on earth) in order to baptize them in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. There are some who will not have this call, and these are the men who wish to wait until the day of the Lord's coming in order to be the bride of Christ. I am asking you to read and meditate on Deuteronomy 33, chapter 18 and 19. It is written that the horn of your tribes will say in the day of their triumph "Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; for His love endures forever," for in this land the Lord your God gives you rest. You, people of the saints of the Most High God, I am calling out to you, the pure of heart. Give thanks to the Lord of heaven, who will remember your holy covenant; for the heavens are the God's. Give thanks to the God of heaven, who alone is holy. To Him the garlands are fitting, for the One who holds the earth keeps and rules the world forever. Give thanks to the Lord for He is good; for His love endures forever, for those who honor Him need no vengeance, but He will judge the peoples with equity. For He is not aware of feeble or wicked men, and will not destroy them in their pride, but will by His love redeem them from themselves. For in me the Lord your God is one, for His loved ones are, together with the Lord, before His face to give praise and thanks, and they will declare His glory. But one that plans wickedness is a sinner, and one that plans and does wickedness is corrupt. He may plan to do a good thing, and the evil of his heart may cause it to go astray. He is a fool in his ways, and sees not, (Psalms 14:1-3)

At that time I asked the father of the child, "How old is your
