Consequently, as a matter of law, the district court did not err in determining that the Act does not apply to Petitioners. To the contrary, the record clearly demonstrates that the drugs were not destined for export because there is no evidence that Petitioners intended to seek entry into the United States for export. Moreover, the record reveals that the drugs were discovered in Belize in an undeveloped area that housed a temporary encampment for foreign migrants. We also reject their contention that the district court erred in failing to give weight to the Customs and Border Protection officer's testimony that Mr. Bossio expressed a desire to make a profit by reselling the drugs, as well as the expert testimony of Mr. English. In regard to Mr. English's testimony, Mr. Bossio was the first witness to testify. When Mr. Bossio testified, he c6a93da74d
